Overview of Vacancy

A two year work based training programme in hotel management. Gaining a L3 apprenticeship in hospitality supervision from BCoT.

Job Description

This is an amazing opportunity to be fully trained in all departments of our hotel and golf club including; hotel reception, kitchen, bar, restaurant, event planning, housekeeping, marketing & media, IT, accounts, revenue management and the golf shop.

Over the course of 2 years you will spend time in each department learning every aspect of the hospitality industry, before deciding which area you feel best suits you or moving on to management training.

You will spend up to three months working in each different department of the business, learning the skills of that department alongside a detailed training programme including; food handling, COSSH, H&S and first aid.

Required Attributes

This position is aimed at Yr11 school leavers achieving GCSE grades 4 or above in both English and Maths.

The successful candidate will be self-motivated and will have already shown examples of their drive to succeed. Everything you need to be successful will be provided, all we ask for is a positive attitude and a willingness to learn.

Job Progression

Initially we are offering a two year supervisory programme but this will potentially lead onto a further one year management programme for the right candidates. Candidates that do not chose to continue with their studies after the initial two year period, may be offered a full time position within the business.

Working Week

Your working week will be one of 40 hours over any five of seven days, depending on which department you are working in at the time. 28 day holidays will be offered per year (including bank holidays) along with a sick pay scheme, company added pension scheme and full membership to the golf club.
